Citizenship Trophies Go To Richman and Sherby

Ann Sherby

Harold Richman

At Shaker Heights High School's annual Honor Day Assembly held June 1 at 2:15 in the high school Auditorium, the 1955 Shaker Square Association Trophies were awarded to Ann Sherby, daughter of Mrs. Daniel Sherby of 18501 Shaker Boulevard, Shaker Heights, and Harold Richman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon H. Richman of 2887 Huntington Road, Shaker Heights.

The highest honor a Shaker High student can attain, the Citizenship Award is made each year to one young man and one young woman in the twelfth grade who are considered by vote of their classmates to excel in character, in service to the school, and in scholarship.

In February both Ann and Harold were among 29 seniors awarded gold Scholarship Keys for maintaining better than a B+ average from the ninth through the first semester of the twelfth grade. Both have been active in sports and activities in their high school years.

Ann has been advertising manager of the yearbook, treasurer of the Girls' Leaders Club, corresponding secretary of the Social Council, vice president of sophomore Y-Teen, an Honor Study Hall Adviser, Senior Class secretary, and a member of the Demerit Panel. She will attend Wellesley College this September.

Harold has been editor-in-chief of the high school newspaper, The Shakerite, vice-president of combined Hi-Y, an Honor Study Hall adviser, a Booster in junior year, and a member of the Demerit Panel for two years, the Social Council for three years, and president of the Senior Class. He will enter Harvard this September, with an Honorary Harvard College National Scholarship, one of 50 granted.

Other seniors nominated for the Citizenship Award and receiving Book Awards were Jane Killpack, member of the Demerit Panel, Shares Club, and the Student Council; Mary Jane Price, vice-president of the Student Council and Demerit Panel chairman; Jerry Rardin, Honor Study Hall member; and John Glick, president of the Student Council and varsity football player.

The Book Awards are sponsored by the Shaker Dads' Club, Williams College, and Connecticut College.

The Social Council Replenishes Ranks

In charge of planning and carrying out the social program for next year will be the newly elected officers of the Social Council.

Walter Freedman will succeed Dick Sanders as president. Aiding him in the capacity of vice president will be Dick Weiss. Roger McArt will take Walt's job as Social Council treasurer.

The Big-Little Sister Program, which includes the Coke Party in the fall, will be planned by Mary Gibson, recording secretary, and Nan Hoover, corresponding secretary, with the help of their predecessors, Nancy Jensen and Ruth Ann Hurt.

Members elected in the junior homerooms for next year are: Barb Biederman, Jim Biolosky, Dave Branand, Paula Brouwer, Gay Cornwell, Dick Cowan, Beryl Douglas, Paula Danaceau, Marilyn Evans, Paul Feinberg, Mary Gibson, Linda Glick, Carol Green, Marg Haag, Dave Jones, Penny Johns, Sam Kinney, Joe Krall, Sue Lindsay, Gloria Linsay, Sally Noble, Tim Parsons, Norma Reiter, Paul Roskoph, Melvin Shaw, Nancy Sternheimer, Brian Switzer, Mike Thal, Sheryl Weisell, Cliff Weiner, and Carole White.

Shakerite Staff Chosen for '55-'56

New officers for next year are being elected in all the many clubs and organizations of the school. The Shakerite, too, has elected a new staff. The five editors for the year of '55 and '56 will be Peter Beuret, Ronnie Loeser, Kathie Meyer, Nancy Williams, and Jim Greene, who will be in charge of the sports department.

To be an editor a student must be first suggested for the position by his English teacher. His recommendation is then approved by the deans. The final step is a meeting of Mr. Randall and the present editorial board at which the recommendations are discussed and a final decision is made.

Although they aren't exactly sure of the plans for the paper next year, the new editors would like to continue having special issues for special events and would like to have a special column in each issue devoted to Student Council and Social Council news.

Benson Has Top Job; Miller, Silverman In; New Council Chosen

Like the calm after the storm, Shaker finally settled down after election week. With the task of selecting officers for the Student Council finally completed, the homerooms then turned to elect the representatives to serve with them on the Council.

President Bill Benson, Vice-President Mary Miller, and Secretary Sue Silverman have been training with this year's officers since their election and are busy preparing for the Starlight Stomp.

Next year's Student Council representatives and alternates and their respective homerooms are: seniors Beverly Bell and Jim Adler, 18A; Mike Blane and Marcia Boukalik, 103; Mike Coplan and Hetty Cowan, 104; Dianne Danka and Jim Dery, 113; Norma Finkle and Sondra Fain, 311; Walt Freedman and Barbara Ganim, 122; Pete Harwood and Marge Haag, 124; Dan Holmes, 101, Bonnie Kane and Chuck Kahn, 210; Ronnie Loeser and Pete Lenhart, 212; Dick Margolis and Bonnie Morse, 213; Tom Pecsok and Madelyn Perry, 214; Neil Ruben and Roberta Rubenstein, 206; Janice Soffen and John Slavin, 218; Dick Tyner and Marilyn Telepak, 303; Cathy Williams and Dick Weiss, 115 Juniors: Pete Bergman and Lloyd Baccus, 102; Martin Carter and Louis Body, 200A; Pete Eichorn and Ann Collins, 200B; Jay Fromson and Jack Freund, 220; Elizabeth Gould and Mary Goekjian, 224; Betsy Karch and Bill Kaplin, 300; Spencer Kramer and Sue Kahn, 306; Sue Markman and Janet Mitchell, 307; Mike Partington and Mike Preisler, 308; Louise Rose and Ed Richman, 309; Emily Stark and Lynn Schwerin, 310; Sue Weber and Linda Sugarman, 312; Gwynn Williams and Jerry Yosowitz, C.

Nancy Williams, Jim Greene, and Mike Gavlak, because they attended the State Student Council Convention in Columbus, will also be Council members and will assist in planning for next year's convention here at Shaker.

1,013 Tickets Sold; HR. 101 Wins Prize

In the Advance Adult Season Football Ticket Sale, which ended on Monday, May 23, the high school homeroom winning first prize, $15, was 101, which sold 101 tickets; $10, second prize, went to 200B, selling 43 tickets; and $5, third prize, to 122, selling 41 tickets. Together, the junior and senior high schools sold 1,013 tickets. Special congratulations go to Dan Holmes, who broke all records, having sold 84 tickets. Mr. Halderman extends his thanks to everyone who helped to make the contest a success.

New Central Committee Chosen To Govern Honor Study Halls

Central Committee, the governing body of the Honor Study Hall, was announced at the Honor Day Assembly, June 1. The six juniors chosen by the preceding committee for their leadership, good judgment, and scholastic ability are Debbie Davies, Carol Finney, Mary Lou Pratt, Dennis Goodman, Walter Freedman, and Peter Harwood.

This committee sets up Honor Study Hall policies, chooses advisers, and has the power to recommend the dismissal from Hnor Study Hall of any student who commits serious or repeated violations.

Shaker Seniors Look Forward To Caps, Gowns, and Diplomas

Stars and sky will provide the roof over the commencement ceremonies for the three hundred and eight members of this year's senior class.

Weather permitting, the commencement will take place in the high school stadium on the night of Friday, June 10. The program will be presided over by Superintendent of Schools William Slade, and will be highlighted by an address by Dr. Samuel N. Stevens and, of course, by the presentation of diplomas to the members of the graduating class.

The evening will begin with a processional played by the high school orchestra. The Reverend Richard Pacini, Minister of the Fairmount Presbyterian Church will then give the Invocation, which will be followed by two hymns sung by the A Cappella Choir.

Dr. Stevens, who is president of a consulting firm in the field of personnel management, former president of Grinnell College, and chairman of the Advisory Board to the Air Training Command of the Air Forces will deliver the principal address of the evening. The subject of his speech is "Let us rejoice while we are yet young."

After Dr. Stevens' address, Mr. Rupp will present the Class of June, 1955, and the graduating seniors will be given their diplomas by Mr. Lawrence T. Mayer and Mr. Alexander Mintz, members of the Shaker Heights Board of Education.

At the conclusion of the presentation of diplomas, the alma mater will be sung by all, and the recessional will be played by the orchestra.

After the completion of the commencement exercises, parents and friends of the recipients of diplomas are invited to a reception on the front campus.

If the weather proves to be inclement, the ceremonies will be held in the auditorium of the high school. In this case the green tickets will be used, and each student will be allowed to bring only two guests.

Gristmill Generals Name '55-'56 Army

Next year, a new staff will undertake the management of the Gristmill.

The editor-in-chief who reads everyone's copy, inspires enthusiasm, and gives the other editors ideas is Marcia Boukalik. Business manager is Robert Rosewater. Theme and rewrite editor is George Gingold. Advertising managers are Richard Danford and Judi Sue Eglin. Student life editors are Beth Wolland and Marcia Hruby. Club editors are Marjorie Haag, Gordon Baldwin, and Sally Stillinger. Sports editors are Pete Crumbine and Dianne Danka. Faculty and Underclass editor is Susan Saltzman. Senior editor is Mary Lou Pratt. Assistant senior editor is Laurel Schauer. Art editor is Stan Dunn.

Next Year Is Yours

This year there has been a considerable amount of grumbling about "school spirit" here at Shaker. Perhaps in doing this grumbling we have forgotten that the answer to this problem rests with us, and that complaining alone is no solution. Some will say that there weren't enough people at pep rallies or wrestling meets. Students did not seem to enter into the spirit of drives and activities with an abundant amount of enthusiasm. Attendance at club meetings has been poor. The school year of '55 and '56 is a brand new one in which we have the chance to rectify this situation. Next September we will begin the year by selling Activity Tickets to cover the expenses of several activities during the year. Mr. Halderman and the cheerleaders have been working together to promote ideas for improving school spirit, especially in the sports field. Some of the pep rallies that you have complained about this year because they were after school will be changed back to school time as they were in 1954. We will have yell leaders in the stands at ball games to help you really make yourself heard. The Social Council has consented to allowing the girls to have an All-Girl Slumber Party again as they have requested. The new wings will be put to use, and our school will be bigger not only in size, but in population. The Demerit System has been revised and the Booster System is also in the process of change. These additions and changes are all for the purpose of making Shaker a better school for you, but these changes alone can not do it. It is up to you whether the work of students and faculty this year benefits Shaker next year. Juniors and sophomores—what will your school be like next year?

Legislators Learn Ohio Government

The annual Girls' Buckeye State convention will be held this year from June 16 through June 26, at Capital University in Columbus, Ohio. Five hundred girls representing high schools and communities throughout the state of Ohio will participate in the managing of a mock state government, including the operation of a state senate and house of representatives. Each girl will be elected to an office and be expected to fulfill the duties associated with her position. During their stay in Columbus, the girls will live at the dormitories of the university. Mary Miller is Shaker's delegate to the convention.

The Boys' Buckeye State convention, meeting at Camp Perry, Ohio, will also form and conduct a mock state government. Bill Benson, Ken Berns, and Jim Greene will be the delegates from Shaker.

The conventions have a dual purpose. The primary object is to acquaint high school students with the mechanics and activities of Ohio's government. The second purpose is for the representatives to meet other teenagers from their state. Since being selected to attend these conventions as representatives of their school and community is a great honor, Mary, Bill, Ken, and Jim are all to be congratulated.

With Judy
The Social Beat And Pete

C'mon now—every-body! Rah! Rah! Rah! and a great big locomotive for cheerful Ann Herzog, Debbie Davies, Sue Mussey, and Marge Haag. They made it loud and good. Representing the males in the same dep't are yelping yell men Ben Fisco, Brian Switzer, and Terry Pim.

Stand up and take a bow, soph lettermen (as of presstime) Jack Freund, Mark Perry, Doug Ganim, Bill German, and letter-ratin' grappling managers Don (Junior Achievement star) Baum and Pete Bergman. We're right proud of your records athletics-wise. Here's to better 'n' better years ahead. And leave us not forget a nod to Bill Carlson and Pete Harwood for being Shaker's reps to the State Track Meet. Good goin', guys. But our hero of the month—in spades—is George Brown— and were we ever glad to see that big grin again!

Everyone is still humming the songs from "Annie." Miss Oakley and her gun really hit Shaker with a bang. Opening night was a high spot of the social season. Marge Haag was there with Tom Piwonka, Nancy Jensen went with Eric Larsen, and Sue Burt was accompanied by Bud Metzger. Some other couples in the audience were Ruth Ann Hurt and Jack Freund, Norita Wyse escorted by Harry Hattenbach, and Miss Doherty with Mr. Holzhauser. The Saturday night audience included Ann Samet and Chic Tate, Mary Gibson with Jim Dery, Marilyn Evans and Ron Cochrane, and Kate Kramer with Buzzy Richards.

The same weekend there was a fishing party. Although the senior boys have quite a line, they didn't catch any fish but everybody had a good time anyway.

Friday and Saturday nights while "Annie" visited Shaker, Nancy Barnett, Norma Finkle, Nancy Gilford, Faith Sadugor, Joyce Slavin, Ann Sherby, and Carol Weiss visited Cornell. Everyone had a wonderful time, especially Ann, Nancy, and Joyce, who became members of the Dep't of Fumbling Females by missing their planes.

Nancy and Ann caught planes home the same day, but not Joyce, a livin' example of the quote, "Love makes people lose track of time." after spending a fabulous weekend on the shores of old Cayuga, the starry-eyed damsel missed her plane home, and wound up spending a long, long night at the Buffalo airport. Poor Joycey—but we bet it was worth it. She had her memories for company.

Not to be outdone in the Fumbling Dep't is Roger Gilbert who fell—and we do mean fell—for the idea of a baseball pep rally. He was a striking contrast of blacks 'n' blues 'n' just a little red around the face as he painfully picked up the pieces.

Our vote for "Coketail Party of the Year" goes to Carol Goldman's birthday celebration. Nearly 100 Shakerites were dee-lighted to help her light those sixteen candles.

Other gals who know how to "hostess" are: Nan Hoover, Connie Lewis, and Mary (who dontcha go up and see her sometime—and find out for yourself?) West.

Warm weather has brought on hayride time once more. One "sit-on-the-straw" was given by a group of junior girls. Mary Ann Cristiano took Tom Jirus, Judy Herkes asked Bill Richardson, and Joyce Ferguson went with Bob Taft.

Once again Shakerites crashed local TV—this time with the rockin'-est and rollin'-est chorus you ever saw, Hen-ry! Vidiots all over watched Jane Cunat, Sondra Fain, Nancy Gilford, Mary Kronheim, Diane Perry, and Toby Malamud put on the peppiest routine of the season.

Sharp Shoppers Dep't

Dick Danford for his cool pink and grey argyle high socks.

Beryl Douglas for starting the headbands-bound-with-ribbons craze.

Rita Moskowitz and Harry New in their twin outfits.

Chuck Kahn when he wears his sharp blue and white checked tie, pink sports jacket, and striped sneakers.

Decoration Day may mean flags and flowers to some lucky, carefree souls, but to slavin' Shakerites, it's the signal to kick off "worrying" about exams" season, and to start praying that cards will be decorated with a sprinkling of A's (dreamer), well, B's. Kram like Krazy, Kids!

That's all the news for now.
That's the gossip big and small.
Have a great vacation
And we'll see you in the fall.

"Syncopated Sweets" look delicious as Sharcs do their routine.

Syncopated Sweets Make Splash As Sharcs Swim Thru Candyland

Sugar and spice, and everything was nice as the Sharcs Club presented their pageant, "Syncopated Sweets." Trinky Quay, Queen of the Lemon Drops, was fated to marry the Chocolate Soldier. There was one hitch in this situation, though. She loved the Candy Cane Kid, John Herron. After a bitter battle, the Kid triumphed over the Chocolate Soldier who melted from the heat of the sun.

All was fine and dandy, and amidst the sweet strains of "Belle of the Ball", and the splashing of the 45 mermaids and mermen behind pink and white flutter boards, the two lovers were joined.

The Sharcs Club members, ably assisted by 13 boys, swam through the sweet regions of Candy Land. Couples seen dancing at the Candy Cane Ball were Chuck Armington and Cathy Berger; Tom Bartlett, Ronnie Loeser; Roger Penske, Marilyn Telepak; Bill Brooks, Karen Macey; Bob Stevens, Barbara Cox; and Ab Glickman and Peggy Fox.

Linda Beamer, Debbie Davies, Jane Pierce, Marilyn Telepak, Sally Stillinger, and Lynn Wynant participated in the "Pink Icing" number which they had entered in the A. A. U. Meet held at Euclid High on May 7.

The Three Musketeers, Diane Sanford, Debbie Davies, and Janice Twigg displayed their aquatic capers, and comedy was supplied by the Candy Corn Clowns, Carol Barber, Beryl Douglas, Marilyn Evans, Judy Hinnant, Sunny Shuster, Judy Wilkoff, and Ronnie Loeser. The Senior "Lemon Drops" romped through their number which was done all in yellow.

The huge castle, 10 feet by 12 feet, was designed by Mr. Caldwell, and built by Mr. Zednik and his boys in the shop. Harvey Mierke was in charge of the trick lighting, while Joyce Slavin staged the choreography. The entire production was under the direction of Miss Alice Richards, whose enthusiastic and capable leadership was largely responsible also for last year's pageant.

Sparkling Banquet Honors All Sports

The annual Shaker High All Sports Banquet was held in the high school cafeteria, Thursday night, March 19. Dinner was served between 6:30 and 7:30 p. m. by a group of ambitious Y-Teens led by Miss Hollister and Miss Bannaian.

After dinner the toastmaster, Fred Heinlen, took over, and introduced all the coaches, their teams, the junior high coaching staff, the cheerleaders, and the officers of the Dads' Club who were present. After the introductions, Mr. Rupp gave a brief talk. Following this, came the two highlights of the evening: the awarding of the two football trophies, and the address by Mr. Eddie Finnegan of Western Reserve University. The trophies were awarded by Mr. Halderman to George Brown and Charlie Burger as best back and lineman, respectively, of last season.

Mr. Finnegan gave an excellent and inspiring address on the qualities that make up a true champion.

A farewell column from us to you
The "Gruesome Twosome" bids adieu!

"Gosh, Judy, I can hardly believe this is our last column. Hasn't it been great?"

"It sure has, Nance. I hope the Shakerites have had as much fun reading it as we have had writing it. But to get down to business, who's going with who to the Starlight Stomp this Saturday night?"

"Well, I've heard that Reva Bruder will be there with Al Cohen and John Havel and Jean Karpi, Chuck Richards is taking Trinky Quay, Art Brooks will escort Janice Twigg, and Judy Niergarth is going with Jim Hoff. Rumor has is that the new Student Council officers are planning a dreamy Starlight Stomp. Let's keep our fingers crossed for good weather."

"I don't think any of us seniors will ever forget our picnic at Squaw Rock, Wednesday. It was a huge success and everyone had a wonderful time. A special thanks to Miss Mildred Nichol for all her help in planning the picnic."

"And now let's look over the date list for the Senior Prom. Judy Cozzens is going with John Glick, Jim Breitweg is taking Emily Carl, Cathy Berger will be there with Chubby Holmes, Marcy Atkins is going with Ray Beallo, and Sunny Shuster has a date with John Herron."

"To add some more, Jude, Stan Nudelman is taking Joan Greenwald, Marnie McKee will be there with Chuck Armington, Jerry Rardin is escorting Sue Lowry, Nica Weston is going with Bruce Havighurst, and Ann Sherby's date is Harold Richman."

"Incidentally, Nance, Ann is giving a Pre-Prom Punch Party from 7 to 9 with Edie Fellinger, Ellie Friedman, Eleanor Rand, Muriel Moss, and Karen Mintz. All seniors and their dates are invited."

We were taught the way to study.

We entered high school with the buoyant enthusiasm of youth.

We soon learned to appreciate the beautiful things of life.

. . . and how to use age-old wisdom.

. . . and all the social graces!

Grievin'

Our Reporter Sheds Tears At the End of Five Years

At Leavin'

Leaving Shaker, Wilbur and I have decided, is the toughest thing we will ever have to do. Tonight, June 10, we will walk across the platform and receive our diplomas in what will be the last thing we do as Shakerites. We were talking about it last night at the Prom.

"Girl," said Wilbur as we waltzed to a fox-trot, "what will you remember longest about good ole Shaker?"

"Well," I said pensively, "perhaps frog dissection, the bonfire or the senior skating party."

Wilbur sighed, unconsciously crunching my last good foot.

"What about pep rallies, musicals, and elections?"

There was a lump in my throat as I limped to the refreshment table. "Or Wonderful Things, like last year's state championship teams, the fight song, the Heights' game spirit, or the day Mrs. Strela forgot to give homework. . . ."

"I think," said Wilbur sadly, "that I will remember special Shaker Voices."

"Like what?" I asked.

"Like 'all right, you schlemeels,' 'Green and inexperienced,' or 'If you don't want to learn this stuff, I'll cram it down your throats.'"

"I've got it," I said, "Like 'E-nunci-ate,' 'All right, ladies, you're seniors now,' 'when I refereed in the Wash Bowl' . . . or how about 'The assembly is dismissed to your fourth period zoom.'"

"Or People," said Wilbur with a catch in his voice; "Mike Smukler standing on his head, Gene Broth with the 'Hot Canary,' or good ole Ray Beallo as Macbeth . . ."

"Or things like Virgil's birthday, the March March, Mr. Zednik's turtles, RDK time . . ."

Wilbur choked and reached for his handkerchief. "The time Mr. Ellis's baton slipped, and someone hung the 'Women's House of Correction' sign on the good ole tower . . ."

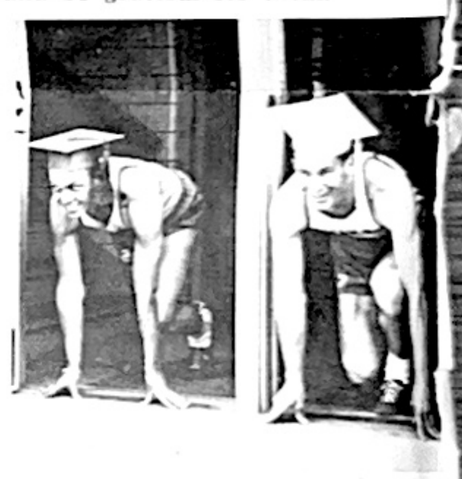
"Butyric acid in the towel chute," I sobbed, "or looking for Palevsky's contact lenses after a football game. . . ."

"Black Knights on the Beachwood water tower. . . ."

"Rusty water in the cafeteria drinking fountain. . . ."

By now I had streaked my eye shadow, Wilbur had diluted his cup of punch, and people were staring. We looked around at all the seniors, our wonderful class, and knew how we'd miss them. I wondered for a moment whether we'd all see each other again, and what we'd all do with our lives.

Then the band began to play something fast and the sad mood was broken, but it occurred to me that someday, many years from now, when I taste another rancid eskimo pie, or get caught in a stairway jam, or hear the haunting strains of the girls' calisthenics record, I'll remember the five wonderful years I had at Shaker High and be grateful for them.



. . . and now we are leaving; Eager to go, but blinking a little in the sunlight.

We developed mentally,

Shakerites Fling Books Aside; Happily Head for the Hills

"At last!" These words will soon echo throughout the school, heralding the long-awaited summer, bringing with it vacation plans for many lucky Shakerites.

Several will spend their time at camps, including Linda Sugarman and Hetty Cowan at Wabi-Kon; Audrey Tepper and Barb Weinberger at Hiawatha; Carol Goldman, Judy Brandwan, and Paula Danaceau at Vega; Elizabeth Gould, Peggy Maroni, and Ann Herzog at Newago; Judy White, Mary Lou Pratt, Laurel Joseph, and Dave Smukler at Interlochen; Paula Brouwer at Four-Way Lodge; Carole Green and Marge Haag at Miniwanca; Jean Colbert, Donna Grover, and Sue Jacobson at Walden; and Jim Adler and John Slavin at Kewane where they will be visited by Jeff Gardner and Dick Cowan.

Combining work with fun are Dennis Goodman, Dennis Tamcsin, Bill Carlson, Mark Harris, and Larry Gould, who are all counselors at Camp Adanac. Others with jobs as counselors are Gail Hertzmark, Roberta Rubenstein, Andy Williams, Joan Linas, Sue Burt, Madge Douda, Gwynn Williams, Marnie McKee, and Evelyn Ramsdell.

Slavers who are spending their summer buck-hunting will include Dave Broderick, Ron Lustig, Dave Evans, Bob Kane, Leigh Kwait, Bob Eastman, John Glick, Keith Davis, Gail Kwait, Cookie Nyman, Diane Perry, Bob Ensten, Neil Cohen, Al Klee, Liz Deutsch, and Mary Jane Price who has two jobs.

"There May Be An Ocean Between Us" might well be the theme-song for Mike Gavlak, Sue Lowry, Sue Weber, Sharon Ode, Jane Pierce, and Janice Twigg, who are all going to Europe. Also leaving the country are Carol Barber and Joan Liebenthal to Canada, Sue Markman to Nova Scotia, and Harlene Henry to Mexico. Others taking part in the exodus from Cleveland are Sue Saltzman, Sue Burger, Bonnie Morse, Judy Klein, Sue Kapstein, Faith Sadugor, Cathy Williams, Marilyn Goodman, Barbara Hallet, Joan Karlovec, Nica Weston, Bob Taft, Larry Gusman, Tom Jirus, and Leon Baer. Vic Samuelson and Dick Wilson, Debbie Davies and Joyce Ferguson, and Dick Sanders and Dave Schneider are traveling in pairs.

The more the merrier with their cottage will be Nate Schneider, Mike Montlack, Dave Saxon, Larry Aurbach, Jerry Mandel, Sid Stein, Steve Shor, Pete Fredrix, and Dan Schweid.

This summer should suit Sue Silverman to a "tee"—she wants to break ninety. Phyllis Genuth will also become a golfer (with Mike's help). Linda Kahn, who is going to take lessons in art, singing, and dancing, must be anticipating the next A Cappella musical. Nancy Caito is going to take up hunting (for a fella', that is), while Flossie Rosewater will become an expert on the subject of letters from Virginia!

Some people just can't seem to get away from school. The cheerleaders will be practicing there all summer. Mr. Bristol's seventh period class will be there, too—taking geometry in summer school.

And what am I going to do? I'm earning my money to buy a lie detector in case I ever again have to interview Mike Bobier, Ken Huszar, Ralph Evans, or Bill Kaplan!

Starlight Stomp In Rickshaw Lot

"A Chinese Garden" amid lanterns and rice sets the scene for the annual Starlight Stomp, to be held on the evening of Saturday, June 4. Lynn Patti's band will play from 8:30 until 12:00.

Oriental scenery, handled by Jim Greene and Betsy Karch, will lend atmosphere. Mary Miller and Walt Freedman were co-chairman of the committee publicizing the Stomp, while Sam Kinney, working with Ken Berns, headed the ticket committee, and Mike Gavlak the refreshment committee.

In lieu of the ordinary routine of holding dances in the girls' gym and Social Room, the Starlight Stomp will be held in the Shaker parking lot under the stars.

Art Enthusiasts View Wurzburger Collection

Several French students had an unusual privilege when they were invited to view the paintings at the home of Mrs. Paul Wurzburger, the wife of the French consul who recently spoke here.

Parents, who had volunteered to provide transportation for the students and Mrs. Barrow and Dr. Dilley, were also present. They were Mrs. Alvin Silverman, Mrs. Earl Hoover, Mrs. Allen Joseph, Mrs. John F. Anderson, and Mrs. Henry DuLaurence.

Four Shaker Shutterbugs Snap National Awards

More than 250 teen-aged photographers shared a $5,000 cash jackpot when winners were announced for the Tenth Annual National High School Photographic Awards.

Four of these winners were Shaker students who achieved high ratings. Dennis Sobol won two $10 Honorable Mention awards. Elton Knight won a Certificate of Merit. Stephen Schor also received $10 Honorable Mention.

Phil Rothenberg, Gristmill photographer, was awarded a Certificate of Merit and $10 Honorable Mention.

Racqueteers Climax Season; Win East Side Championship

By virtue of their decisive 4-1 win over U. S., the Shaker netters earned the right to play John Adams for the East Side title. On May 12 the Shaker team invaded John Adams on the Woodhill courts.

Under the able coaching of John Pickering, former State Scholastic Champion, the Shaker team emerged victorious, downing John Adams 3-2.

Dick Inglis was the only singles player to triumph against U. S. and John Adams. Doug Ganim paired with Corky Maniaci and Dave Luke teamed with Harry New were also victorious over U. S. and John Adams. Winning second singles at U. S. was Tony Haber.

This spring the Raiders had one of their most successful seasons. The team has remained undefeated by beating U. S. twice and also winning over Gilmour Academy.

This year's entire squad, minus senior Harry New, will be back to menace the courts in the fall.

Picnics Popular; Mosquitoes Merry

Spring is here again! With its arrival have come the perpetual battles against ants, rain, and burned hot dogs. Many groups are attempting to slip a picnic into an already hectic schedule.

Girls' Leaders held their annual party in the form of a picnic this year.

The combined chapters of Hi-Y held a date dinner on Saturday, May 21, and two days later, the girls of the combined Y-Teen chapters had their final meeting.

Squaw Rock Greets Carefree Seniors

For all seniors suffering from spring fever and final exam blues, the Senior Picnic proved to be a definite cure.

Immediately after the Honor Day assembly on June 1, bus-loads of seniors left for Squaw Rock.

The entertainment was planned by Judy Cozzens, Jerry Rardin, and Harold Richman, assisted by Miss Hollister, Miss Nichol, the faculty chairman, and Miss Siley, the class sponsor.

Seniors found plenty of entertainment available, including a community sing led by Mr. Newman, a softball game between the intramural champs and the varsity team, and a gunny sack race.

Euclid Contest Climaxes Season

Shaker's baseball squad closes out the 1955 season at 8.00 p. m. tomorrow with a night game at Euclid. This is the only night game that the team plays this year. Going against Shaker will be Euclid's Ernie Christoff, one of the top hurlers in the L. E. L. Coach Fred Heinlen says that Christoff should be very tough under the lights.

Commenting on the season Coach Heinlen said, "It's been a very pleasant and surprising season. We did much better than I thought we would, and this is because our sophomore prospects Rogar McArt, Jim May, Ed Anzalone, Lou Body, and Bill German all helped the team a great deal."

Coach Heinlen still considers Joel Holmes and Tom Comella the best in the city at their positions, second base and the outfield respectively. Heinlen calls Kahn, the boy who came from nowhere, a real asset to the team.

Faculty Flashes Squeeze By Pascudnyacs in 15-0 Battle

The intramural softball season has blazed into the home stretch with Earl Seidman's Pascudnyacs riding on top of the heap sporting a 4-1 record.

On the mound Mike Wipper, Earl Seidman, and Dennis Goodman have proved to be the outstanding hurlers. The power behind the plate has been provided by the bats of Laurie Horwitz and Ralph Evans, two demons of the diamond.

The biggest surprise of the season has been the faculty. As a result of last issue's article on intramural softball in which the faculty was politely ridiculed, the teachers challenged the Pascudnyacs to a game. A rout ensued as the faculty won 15-0. After their brilliant victory the teachers promised to play any team that could beat the Pascudnyacs. So far only Dudnik's Dodos have accomplished this feat. The faculty has declared itself ready to meet the Dodos and according to Mr. Morris, star pitcher for the teachers, the faculty intends to use only five men. Mr. Morris predicts another rout when and if the game is played.

Should the sun be shining the faculty will probably win, but if the weather is damp the teachers may find themselves hampered by their rheumatism.

Linksmen Capture Erie Championship; Kloppman Tallies for Medalist Honors

"I feel that this is the finest golf team we have ever had at Shaker," said Coach John Newman. "A well-rounded team is a winning team." A glance at the record will show this statement to be true. Ray Beallo, Mike Montlack, Larry Aurbach, and Bruce Kloppman, the boys that make up this year's team, have gone through the season thus far with but one defeat.

Shaker captured the Lake Erie League championship by trouncing their L. E. L. competition at Shaker Heights Country Club. Their total score was forty-six strokes better than their nearest rival. Bruce Kloppman led the tee-men with a seventy-six to win medalist honors.

The district tournament saw Shaker forced to take second to a powerful Willoughby team. Although the boys played brilliant golf, it was not enough, as Willoughby, led by State Champion Bob Shave Jr., added the district to their long string of wins. This time it was Mike Montlack who finished first for Shaker with a seventy-seven.

Thinclads Are Undefeated In Five Dual Meet Clashes

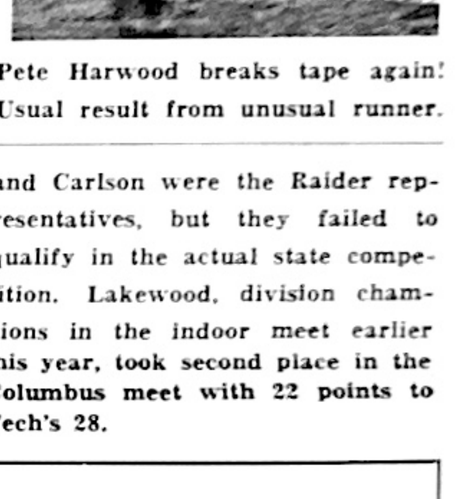
The Shaker track season has drawn to a close and Coach Bob Rice's thinclads have again proved themselves to be a competitively powerful team as shown by their Hilltop victory and outstanding performance in the Indoor Meet at the Arena. The Red and White have also been undefeated in dual meet competition.

The bulk of this year's team was composed of sophomores and juniors whose experience will be invaluable in next year's campaign. Junior speed-merchant Pete Harwood climaxed the season by tying a Jesse Owens record in the 220-yard dash. Harwood, a letter-winner in his sophomore year, should be among Ohio's top dash contenders next year. Another junior, Bill Benson, has bolstered the Red and White in the 880-yard run. Adding strength in the relay department were juniors Walt Freedman, Ron Cochrane, and Bob Mears and sophomore Mike Partington.

Chic Tate, Lynn Hammond, Bob Gould, and Dave Jones have provided competition in the field events, and sophomore weightman, Bill Carlson, is expected to give opponents a rough time next season with a year of high school experience behind him.

Seniors departing from the Shaker cinder scene are Sid Wolfe, Charlie Burger, and Captain Jim Breitweg—all lettermen who earned their awards in earlier seasons. Wolfe and Breitweg are members of the cross-country team as well as track, and Burger is well known to all Shaker gridiron fans.

Shaker sent two representatives to the state meet at Columbus which was won by East Tech. Harwood and Carlson were the Raider representatives, but they failed to qualify in the actual state competition. Lakewood, division champions in the indoor meet earlier this year, took second place in the Columbus meet with 22 points to Tech's 28.



Pete Harwood breaks tape again! Usual result from unusual runner.
